military. Not the one facing us across the frontier of the battle lines, which is not so much our enemy as our brothers' enemy, but the one that calls itself our protector and makes us its slaves. No matter what the circumstances, the worst betrayal will always be to subordinate ourselves to this apparatus and to trample underfoot, in its service, all human values in ourselves and in others."

~ Simone Weil

As everyone should know by now, the State and its murderous enforcement goons, desire that everyone should have their guns taken from them, leaving guns only in the hands of the common criminals, and worse, in the hands of the evil police and military. This is sought under the guise of protecting us; propaganda and lies all. Gun control could be a good thing, so long as it was gun control over the entire State apparatus, and all who participate in it. The 'citizenry' should be armed at all times, while every single politician, every police officer, every soldier in the military, and every employee of the State should be disarmed immediately. Just consider how differently the evil political scum in government and all its enforcement bureaucracy would behave if they were unarmed while the masses were not? Who would be free and in control then? The people of course, and for the first time. What a novel idea, as that is a reversal I could embrace.

The criminals are in charge, and as criminals, they always choose to stick together, protect each other, and all at the expense of the proletariat. In Canada over the past two years, car thefts, many at gunpoint, have increased to one every 6 minutes. Canada is mostly what is labeled as a 'gun-free zone,' at least as far as innocent citizens are concerned, but this does not apply to the common criminal and political class. These car thefts have gotten so bad, so often, and so violent, that the worthless and evil police called a 'public' meeting to address this problem. The police had but one suggestion:

"To prevent the possibility of being attacked in your home, leave your key fobs at your front door, because they're breaking into your home to steal your car. They don't want anything else."

For me to even imagine this level of demeaning, pathetic, and obvious stupidity by these so-called State-supported representatives, is too insane to consider. But there is more. Those who attempt to defend themselves, are arrested, and charged with capital crimes, while the armed intruders are left to continue their reign of terror against others. There are many cases of this happening, as described by Dan Dicks recently.

I bring up this particular case because of how blatant is the crime committed by the police in favor of only the government's agenda. It seems obvious that this is a plot against the people, and a way for the breeding of violent chaos and civil unrest to take place; this an intentional plan to allow further control over all in the future. This type of situation has happened many times in this country already, but will get much worse as time goes by.

Remember the theft, fires, destruction of property, and violent assaults that took place during the scam of 'covid,' mostly perpetrated by the Black Lives Matter and Antifa criminal gangs. This was purposely set up and allowed by the State and its police forces, as few arrests or prosecutions were forthcoming. Think about the rioting and violent looting of retail stores, malls, and other shopping outlets that had been and is now, fully allowed by the State and its police. There were even pronouncements by the police and State that anyone could steal amounts approaching $1,000 worth of merchandise without any worry of arrest or prosecution. This is an intentional invitation for criminals to steal. As in the Canada case, those who attempted to stop these thieves from stealing goods and destroying property and their businesses, and rightfully so, were in many cases prosecuted or fired from their jobs. No excuses begins to explain such idiocy and corruption as this.

Consider that the U.S. and its enforcement slime, are rounding up people everywhere, bringing them to the border, purposely opening up the gates to let them all in, and then paying them off with thousands of dollars, 'free' housing, medical care, schooling, citizenship by joining the military crime syndicate, travel to wherever they want to go, among other perks. In doing this, the State has convinced the ignorant and dependent dolts of this country to blame those coming across the border by invitation, instead of blaming the government and its criminal accomplices who designed and are implementing this plot. By blaming those coming in, regardless of their motives, right or wrong, the State wins, because they want desperately to cause unprosecuted crime, civil unrest, and turmoil, and the bulk of this seemingly stupid population are happy to oblige. This could easily lead to all in the U.S. being locked behind walls to keep them in, while the non-thinking proletariat will be sold on the lie that this is keeping others out.

The end goal is to implode this economy, destroy the food production and distribution networks, causing massive hardship to all of you, destroy the current monetary system so as to replace it with central bank digital currency or fed 'stable' coins, and to take full and complete control over the entire society. In order to accomplish this designed heinous plan of destruction, and accomplish a reset of the economy, taking everything away from you in the process, so as to make you even more dependent, it is necessary to cause mass unrest. This will allow for martial law in the future, or full military rule. Either way, a new police state is coming, and the more you hate each other instead of the true enemy that is the State, the easier it will be for you to become permanently enslaved by the very masters you have voluntarily chosen to be your rulers for life.

This abominable State should be made impotent or abolished, not worshipped, and disarming all police and State forces could accomplish that goal. Take the guns away from the tyrants, and place them in the hands of the people. You are considered criminals by this atrocious State, but the real criminals are all those who claim to be your protector and savior.

This is not a 2nd Amendment problem, as that worthless language is irrelevant, as should have been learned by all at this point. Government never had any right to claim power over the people, so certainly has no right to restrict arms. Take the guns away from the rulers and their minions, and keep them for yourselves. Natural law and natural rights are valid, government pronouncements of rights are completely illegitimate. Self-defense is a natural right, and needs not the approval or sanction by any immoral or unauthorized government. Protecting one's life by any means necessary is required if real safety and freedom are sought.

Non-aggression is vital in any peaceful and harmonious society, but when the State becomes this aggressive, making war on the people, as it has today, it is time for active self-defense against the State. Sometimes it is necessary to meet the brutal and violent force of an out-of-control government with a greater force. That time has come.

"A cop's JOB is to violently enforce upon the rest of us whatever arbitrary bullshit the political parasites declare to be "law." It is, therefore, impossible to be a "law enforcer" and behave morally, for the same reason one can't be a moral car-jacker."
